

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

FROM SATURDAY August 16, to SATURDAY August 23, 1740.

By Capt. Arthur Clark who arrived here last Week from Bristol, we have the following fresh Advices.

From the St. James's Evening Post.

L O N D O N, June 3.

WE hear that the late King of Prussia, died at Berlin, on the 20th of May last.

He died in the 52d Year of his Age, and was Margrave of Brandenburg, Arch Chamberlain and Elector of the holy roman Empire, Prince of Magdeburgh, Cleves, Juliers, Bergues, Stetin, Pomerania, Cassubia, of the Vandals, and Crossen in Silesia, Burgrave of Nuremberg, Prince of Halberstadt, Camin, and Neufchatel, Count of Valengin, Lawenburgh, &c. He was Son of Frederick III. Elector of Brandenburg, who having assisted in the glorious Revolution in Favour of these Kingdoms, was made a Knight of the Garter by King William; and in the Year 1700 took upon himself the Title of King of Prussia, which Title was acknowledged by France and Spain in the Treaty of Utrecht. The late King's Mother was Sopdia Charlotta Princess of Hanover, Daughter of the Princess Sophia of Great-Britain.

His late Prussian Majesty married Sophia Dorothea Princess of Hanover, his Cousin German, and only Sister to his Majesty our Sovereign, by whom he has left Issue Four Sons and Five Daughters; Four of the latter are married, viz. the eldest to the Prince of Bareith; the second to the Margrave of Anspach, Nephew to the late Queen Caroline; the third to the Prince of Bevern, Nephew to the Empress; and the fourth to the Margrave of Sevedt: The youngest is seventeen Years old. Charles Frederick, Prince Royal, now King of Prussia, was born in Jan. 1712, and was married in the Year 1733 to the Princess of Bevern. Margrave William Augustus is about sixteen Year of Age, and the other young Princes much younger.

The Family of Brandenburg is not less ancient than any in the Empire. They are reckon'd next in Strength to the House of Austria. Their Dominions are large and fruitful. The late King's annual Revenues were said to be about 1,500,000 l. Sterling. He had an Army of 60,000 to 80,000 Men constantly on Foot. The Troops of his Household contained 8000. His Palace is esteem'd second to none in Europe, Versailles excepted, and its Furniture invaluable, in Paintings and Statues, Collections of Medals and Rarities, and a Library full of the choicest Manuscripts.

Vienna, April 9. The French are making such Preparations not only about Strasburg, but also on the Lower Rhine, as if a War was actually at Hand; which gives our Court great Umbrage. Comte d'Ostein is going to England with a Commission of the utmost Moment.

Madrid, April 12. 'Tis not doubted but that the Squadrons from Cadiz and Ferrol are bound for the West-Indies: What makes this the rather believed, is their having great Quantity of Iron on Board: they have also 3000 Men of Regular Troops: and as they will be joined by 7 or 8 Men of War under the Command of Don Bloss in America; they are in Hopes of being in a Condition, not only to stop the Progress of the British Squadron, but even to undertake something against them. 'Tis said the Court has Advice, that Admiral Escalda with some Men of War, was arrived at Porto-Rico, the Capital of the Island of that Name.

L O N D O N, June 7.

There were Letters Yesterday in Town, which mention, that the Spanish Squadron had escap'd (a second Time) from Ferrol.

The Ships that sail'd from Ferrol the 21st of May, N.S. under the Command of Admiral Pensadoes, are the St. Philip, from 74 to 80 Guns, 750 Men; the Prince, the St. Anne, and the Regina, from 66 to 70 Guns each; the Grand Lyon, the St. Jago, the Castilla, the the New-Spain, the Andalusia, the St. Antonio, the Asia, the America and the Africa, of 60 Guns, and 600 Men each; the Galza and the Esperanza, of 50 Guns, and 500 Men each; with three small 16 Gun-Snips, three Fire-Ships, and three Bomb-Ketches.

On Wednesday Night last an Express arrived with Advice that the above Squadron of Spanish Men of War was sailed for the Bay of Cadiz.

Four Thousand Land Forces are ordered to be embark'd for Jamaca, with all possible Expedition.

It is said that Advice is come, that two Spanish Men of War, one of 40 Guns, and the other of 50 Guns, are taken by Admiral Balchen in Latitude 48. 52 Degrees North.

We hear that Sir John Norris immediately upon hoisting his Flag on board the Victory, will sail with a strong Squadron of Observation.

On Friday last a Body of Merchants waited on the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, to request, that Orders may be given for a Convoy to Snips bound for divers Parts, being apprehensive of the Ferrol Squadron. They met with an agreeable Reception; and, as we hear, were told by Sir Charles, that eleven stout Men of War, under the Command of Vice Admiral Balchen, are cruizing off Cape Finisterre, so that they need not be under any Apprehension from the Spanish Men of War at Ferrol.

HANOVER, May 27. O.S.

The King of Great-Britain arrived this Morning at the Castle of Herrenhausen. The Ministers of State, the General Officers, and many other Persons of Distinction, went there to compliment his Majesty, who in the Afternoon received the Congratulation of the Ladies. M. de Menchafren is set out for Berlin, as well to compliment the King of Prussia, as to execute a Commission there.

Mr. Timothy,

Pray insert the following ingenious Lines, which I have borrow'd from Mr. PRIOR's Pegms, in Return for the Character of Ralpho, invidiously applied to Mr. WHITEFIELD, without DAMNING the Author, or any Recourse to his Pastor's Treasury; while, with a Mixture of Pity, I smile at his Bruta fulmina and insignificant Flashes.

To the Reverend and Pious Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD, upon hearing of his Sickneis at GEORGIA.

WHITEFIELD!

Forgive the Mute, who in unhallow'd Strains
The Saint one Moment from his GOD detains;
For sure, whate'er you do, where'er you are,
'Tis all but one good Work, one constant Pray'r:
Forgive her; and intreat that GOD, to whom
Thy favour'd Vows with kind Acceptance come,
To raise her Notes to that sublime Degree,
Which suits a Song of Pity and Thee.

Wond'rous good Man! Whose Labours may repel
The Force of Sin, may stop the Rage of Hell;
Thou, like the BAPTIST, from thy GOD wast sent

The crying Voice, to bid the World repent.
And wilt thou GO! Still bless us with thy stay:
O! want thy Heaven, till we have learnt the Way:
Relute to leave thy destin'd Charge too soon;
And for the Church's Good, defer thy own.
O! live: And let thy Works urge our belief;
Live to explain thy Doctrine by thy Life;
'Till future INFANCY, baptis'd by thee,
Grow ripe in Years, and old in Piety
Till CHRISTIANS, yet unborn, be taught to die.

Then in full Age, and hoary Holiness
Retire, great Teacher, to thy promis'd Bliss:
Untouch'd thy Tomb, unjar'd be thy Dust,
As thy own Fame among the future Just;
Till in last Sounds the dreadful Trumpet speaks:
Till JUDGMENT calls; & quicken'd NATURE wakes:
Till thro' the utmost Earth and deepest Sea
Our scatter'd ATOMS find their destin'd Way,
In haste to cloath their kindred Souls again;
Perfect our State, and build immortal Man:
Then fearless thou, who well sustain'd'st the Fight,
To Paths of Joy and Tracts of endless Light,
Lead up all those that heard thee, and believ'd;
'Midst thy own Flock, great Shepherd be receiv'd;
And glad all Heav'n with Millions thou hast sav'd
PHILAGATHUS.
